Description of authorised processing
Identity of Controller and Processor for each category of Personal Data	Social Enterprise UK
Subject matter of the processing	SEUK membership data
Duration of the processing	Nov 2024 – Feb 2025
Nature and purposes of the processing	Identification and analysis of marine social enterprises – personal data will only be used for case study compilation
Type of Personal Data	Contact names, email addresses, postal addresses, job roles.
Categories of Data Subject	Members - (so Users/Customers/prospective customers - from SEUK's perspective)
Plan for return and destruction of the data once the processing is complete UNLESS requirement under law to preserve that type of data	Signed consent forms will be scanned, uploaded to the project folder, and the hardcopies shredded. With the express written consent of the participants, this data will be held for the duration of the project and for three years afterwards. All personal data about interviewees, and any other project contacts, will be held in line with GDPR regulations.
Locations at which the Contractor and/or its subcontractors process Personal Data under this Agreement	Social Enterprise UK will provide the independent researchers with access to their data through a data sharing agreement. The new data that we collect through interviews for the case studies, will include: 1) audio recordings, 2) researcher fieldnotes, 3) transcripts of interviews
Protective Measures that the Contractor and, where applicable, its subcontractors have implemented to protect Personal Data processed under this Agreement against a breach of security (insofar as that breach of security relates to data) or a Personal Data Breach	Both the independent researchers and Social Enterprise UK agree to immediately inform all parties of any breach of security with regards to personal data. Additionally, both parties agree to notify each other immediately if there is any breach of GDPR or the applicable data protection laws.
